

Bankura Christian College

NOTICE

Date: 13-07-2026

All 1st Semester students are hereby informed that those who fail to attend any class from the date of commencement of classes up to 22.07.2026 shall have their names struck off from the College rolls and shall cease to enjoy the privileges of studentship, including permission to fill up the University Enrolment and Registration Forms.

Students are further reminded that they are required to maintain the prescribed minimum percentage of attendance in accordance with the rules and regulations of the College and the declaration submitted by the students and their guardians at the time of admission. Failure to comply with the attendance requirements may result in disciplinary action and other academic consequences, including disqualification from appearing in University examinations.

All students are, therefore, advised to attend classes regularly and ensure strict compliance with the attendance norms of the College.
